In support of the Application, Marchand submits the Certification of Jorge Marchand Sifre (the "Marchand Certification"), attached hereto as Exhibit A, and respectfully represents as follows:

Preliminary Statement

1. On September 5, 2017, Marchand was retained as Information Agent to the Retiree Committee, effective July 21, 2017. The Retiree Committee represents approximately 167,000 retired employees of the Commonwealth and various governmental bodies and their surviving beneficiaries, including Puerto Rico's retired teachers, police officers, firefighters, judges, municipal clerks, engineers, and other government workers of all categories (the "Retirees"). The Retirees' pensions are underfunded by at least $58 billion. They are the largest group of creditors in these Title III Cases.

2. During the Interim Period, Marchand performed a variety of services designed to provide retirees timely updates on the status of the Title III Cases and their impact on the Retirees and to assist the Retiree Committee in delivering clear and consistent messaging to retirees.

3. Marchand's work during the Interim Period was necessary for, and beneficial to, the Retirees and served to ensure that the interests of the Retirees are protected, and that the Retirees have access to information concerning these Title III Cases. Marchand respectfully requests that the Court award the fees and expenses requested in this Application.

Jurisdiction

4. The United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico (the "Court") has subject matter jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to PROMESA section 306(a).

5. Venue is proper pursuant to PROMESA section 307(a).

6. Marchand makes this Application pursuant to PROMESA sections 316 and 317, Bankruptcy Code sections 105(a) and 503(b), Bankruptcy Rule 2016, Local Rule 2016-1, the Retention Order, the Interim Compensation Order, and the UST Guidelines.

Background

7. On May 3, 2017, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (the “Commonwealth”), by and through the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico (the “FOMB”), as the Commonwealth’s representative pursuant to section 315(b) of PROMESA, filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

8. On May 5, 2017, the Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation (“COFINA”), by and through the FOMB, as COFINA’s representative pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

9. On May 21, 2017, the Puerto Rico Highways and Transportation Authority (“HTA”), by and through the FOMB, as HTA’s representative pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

10. On May 21, 2017, the Employees Retirement System for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (“ERS”), by and through the FOMB, as ERS’s representative pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

11. On July 3, 2017, the Puerto Rico Electric Power Authority (“PREPA”), by and through the FOMB, as PREPA’s representative pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

12. Through Orders of this Court, the Commonwealth, COFINA, HTA, ERS, and PREPA title III cases (collectively, the “Title III Cases”) are jointly administered for procedural purposes only, pursuant to PROMESA section 304(g) and Bankruptcy Rule 1015. [See Dkt. Nos. 242, 537, 1417.]

13. On June 15, 2017, the U.S. Trustee, pursuant to section 1102(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, appointed the Retiree Committee, consisting of the following nine individuals: Blanca Paniagua, Carmen Nunez, José Marin, Juan Ortiz, Lydia Pellot, Marcos A. Lopez, Miguel Fabre, Milagros Acevedo, and Rosario Pacheco. [Dkt. No. 340.]⁶

⁶ As of April 12, 2018, José Marin resigned from the Retiree Committee.

⁷ In a chapter 11 case, a committee appointed under section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code ordinarily would seek authority to employ professionals pursuant to section 327. Because PROMESA does not incorporate section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Retiree Committee moved for approval of its Retention Application pursuant to sections 105(a) and 1103(a). See PROMESA § 301(a) (omitting Bankruptcy Code sections 327 and 328 from incorporation into PROMESA).

29. Marchand's fees are based upon hours charged, recorded in tenth of an hour increments, at Marchand's ordinary and customary hourly rates, plus reimbursement of actual, necessary out-of-pocket expenses and other charges incurred by Marchand on behalf of the Retiree Committee. The rates set forth herein are consistent with the rates Marchand charges other clients.

30. 31. This is Marchand's sixth request for interim compensation in these Title III Cases. As set forth in the Marchand Certification, all of the services for which interim compensation is sought herein were rendered for and on behalf of the Retiree Committee in connection with these Title III Cases. To the best of Marchand's knowledge and as disclosed in the Declaration of Jorge Marchand [Dkt. No. 1280-3] (the "Marchand Declaration"), Marchand is a "disinterested person" as defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, and Marchand's professionals do not hold or represent any interest adverse to the Retiree Committee.

32. Marchand performed the services for which it is seeking compensation on behalf of the Retiree Committee and not on behalf of any other committee, creditor, or other entity.

33. Marchand has not received payment or promise of payment from any source other than the Commonwealth for its services rendered and expenses incurred on behalf of the Retiree Committee or to be provided in any capacity whatsoever in connection with the Title III Cases.

Fees and Expenses Incurred During Interim Period

A. Customary Billing Disclosures

34. Marchand's hourly rates are set at a level designed to compensate Marchand fairly for the work of its professionals and to cover fixed and routine expenses. The hourly rates and corresponding rate structure utilized by Marchand in the Title III Cases are equivalent to the hourly rates and corresponding rate structure used by Marchand hourly are commensurate with industry standards and not significantly different from the rates and fees that Marchand charges for other similar types of services.

B. Fees Incurred During Interim Period

35. 36. In the ordinary course of Marchand's practice, Marchand maintains a record of expenses incurred in rendering professional services to the Retiree Committee and for which reimbursement is sought. Exhibit E to this Application is a summary for the Interim Period of the total amount of expenses for which Marchand seeks reimbursement with respect to each category of expenses. The out-of-pocket disbursement sum is broken down into categories of charges.

Summary of Services Provided During the Interim Period

37. During the Interim Period, Marchand provided important services to the Retiree Committee in connection with the Title III Cases. A summary of the services Marchand provided to the Retiree Committee during the Interim Period is set forth in paragraphs 40 through 42 below.

38. Marchand has established, in accordance with its internal billing procedures, subject matters categories (each, a "Matter Category") for keeping time records of the work performed for the Retiree Committee. A schedule setting forth a description of each Matter Category utilized in this case, the number of hours worked by Marchand professionals for each Matter Category, and the aggregate fees associated with each Matter Category is attached as Exhibit F. Actual and Necessary Expenses Incurred by Marchand During the Interim Period

43. As summarized in Exhibit E and as set forth in detail in Exhibit H, Marchand has incurred a total of $12,028.72 in expenses on behalf of the Retiree Committee during the Interim Period. These charges are intended to reimburse Marchand's direct costs that are not included in Marchand's hourly billing rates.

Marchand's Requested Compensation and Reimbursement Should be Allowed

44. The services for which Marchand seeks compensation in this Application were, at the time provided, necessary for and beneficial to the Retiree Committee. Marchand performed these services economically, effectively, and efficiently. Marchand submits that the compensation requested is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services to the Retiree Committee. Accordingly, Marchand submits the compensation sought in this Application is warranted and should be approved.

A. Compensation Under Sections 316 and 317 of PROMESA.

45. Section 317 of PROMESA authorizes interim compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of section 316 of PROMESA to govern the Court's award of interim compensation. Section 316 of PROMESA provides that a court may award a professional employed under section 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered," and "reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 48 U.S.C. § 2176(a)(1), (2). Section 316(c) sets forth the criteria for such an award:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded to a professional person, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including—

- (1) the time spent on such services;
- (2) the rates charged for such services;
- (3) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this chapter;
- (4) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;

(5) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the restructuring field; and

(6) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this subchapter or Title 11.

48 U.S.C. § 2176(c).

46. As analyzed below, Marchand submits the elements governing awards of compensation under PROMESA justify the allowance requested.

1. The Time and Labor Required

47. During the Interim Period, Marchand's professionals spent 777 hours providing professional services to the Retiree Committee for which Marchand seeks compensation on an hourly basis. Marchand required this amount of time to satisfy the Retiree Committee's obligations to provide information to retirees under section 1102(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code and perform additional communications services and other tasks described herein.

2. The Rates Charged for Such Services

48. During the Interim Period, Marchand's hourly billing rates ranged from $95 for Media Managers to $175 for Principals. Based on the recorded hours expended by Marchand's professionals, the average hourly billing rate was $126.33 for Marchand timekeepers.

49. Marchand's hourly rates are set at a level designed to compensate Marchand fairly for the work of its professionals and to cover certain fixed and routine overhead expenses. Hourly rates vary with the experience and seniority of the individuals assigned. These hourly rates are subject to periodic adjustments to reflect economic and other conditions and are consistent with the rates charged elsewhere.

50. The hourly rates and corresponding rate structure that Marchand charges in these cases are equivalent to or less than the hourly rates and corresponding rate structure that Marchand charges for similar services, whether in court or otherwise, regardless of whether a fee application is required.

3. The Necessity of the Services and the Benefit to the Estate's Retirees

51. As described herein, the services rendered by Marchand were necessary for the efficient and economical resolution of the Retiree Committee's interests in the Title III Cases. All of those services directly benefitted the Retiree Committee and the Retirees.

52. The Retiree Committee has reviewed the Application and has approved the compensation and reimbursement of expenses requested herein.

4. The Reasonableness of the Time Spent, Based on the Complexity, Importance, and Nature of the Issues

53. Marchand's work involved the representation of the Title III Cases' largest creditor constituency—Puerto Rico's approximately 167,000 retired teachers, police officers, firefighters, judges, municipal clerks, engineers, and other government workers of all categories. Marchand's professional services during the Interim Period were necessary to provide the Retirees timely updates on the status of the Title III Cases and their impact on retirees and to assist the Retiree Committee in delivering clear and consistent messaging to retirees. In light of the foregoing, Marchand submits that the compensation requested is reasonable.

5. The Experience, Reputation, and Ability of the Professionals Providing Services

54. As set forth in the Retention Application, the Retiree Committee selected Marchand as its Information Agent because Marchand has deep roots in Puerto Rico and is one of Puerto Rico's leading strategic communications firms with decades of experience in media relations, community relations, litigation support, and strategic communications services. Through its work, Marchand has earned a reputation as an honest and reliable source of information throughout the Commonwealth.

6. Customary Compensation

55. The work for which Marchand seeks compensation in this Application is of the type and nature for which Marchand customarily would seek compensation at the rates identified in this Application. In addition, the compensation Marchand seeks in this Application is comparable to the compensation it would have sought for comparable work outside of the Title III Cases.

56. Marchand submits that the compensation requested is reasonable under all the factors considered under sections 316 and 317 of PROMESA and that the factors justify the allowance in full of Marchand's compensation and reimbursement request.

57. In view of the foregoing, Marchand respectfully requests that it be allowed interim compensation in the amount of $101,092.00 for services rendered during the Interim Period.

B. Reasonable and Necessary Expenses Incurred in Providing Services to the Retiree Committee.

58. For the Interim Period, Marchand requests reimbursement of $12,028.72 for reasonable and necessary costs and expenses incurred on behalf of the Retiree Committee.

59. Marchand's normal billing rates do not take these costs and expenses into consideration. Rather, Marchand bills each cost and expense to the applicable client separately, in each case, at Marchand's costs.

60. Marchand does not include the amortization of the cost of any investment, equipment, or capital outlay in its charges for these services. Any services billed by a third-party vendor are charged to the Retiree Committee in the amount billed to and paid by Marchand.

61. Marchand has made reasonable efforts to minimize its costs and expenses in connection with its representation of the Retiree Committee. Each of the costs and expenses Marchand has incurred in providing professional services to the Retiree Committee was necessary, reasonable, and justified under the circumstances to serve the needs of the Retiree Committee.

Statement by Marchand Under Paragraph C(5) of the UST Guidelines

62. This engagement does not involve variations from Marchand's standard and customary billing rates.

63. None of the professionals included in this Application varied their hourly rate based on the geographic location of their cases.

64. The Application does not include time or fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing, or revising invoices.

65. The Application does not include time or fees for reviewing time records to redact any privileged or other confidential information.

66. The hourly rates specified in the Retention Application were effective January 1, 2017, and have not increased since that time. For certain services rendered prior to January 1, 2017, Marchand's hourly rates were lower than the rates described in the Retention Application. Marchand's engagement letter with the Retiree Committee provides that Marchand's hourly rates are subject to periodic adjustment to reflect economic and other conditions.

67. Consistent with the UST Guidelines and the Fee Examiner Memorandum, Marchand submits monthly budgets to the Fee Examiner. Marchand's budgets estimated fees for the Interim Period at $79,685.00. Marchand is requesting compensation of $101,092.00 for the Interim Period—$21,407.00 more than the amount budgeted—due to an unanticipated increase in Marchand's work in connection with the Retiree Committee-FOMB plan support agreement.

Reservation of Rights and Notice

68. It is possible that some professional time expended or expenses incurred during the Interim Period are not reflected in the Application. Marchand reserves the right to include such amounts in future fee applications.

Pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, the Retiree Committee has provided notice of this Application to: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) counsel to the FOMB; (c) counsel to AAFAF; (d) counsel to the UCC; (e) the Fee Examiner; and (f) all parties that have filed a notice of appearance with the Clerk of this Court, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 and applicable provisions of the Local Rules, and requested such notice.

No Prior Request

70. No prior application for the relief requested by this Application has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, Marchand respectfully requests that the Court enter an order: (a) awarding Marchand compensation for professional services provided during the Interim Period in the amount of $101,092.00 ; (b) reimbursement of actual, reasonable, and necessary expenses incurred in the Interim Period in the amount of $12,028.72; (c) granting such other relief as is appropriate under the circumstances.
